Comilla University students withdraw Dhaka-Ctg Highway blockade after nearly two hours

Configurations · https://cbotai.shahrear.msf.bd/docs/comilla-university-students-withdraw-dhaka-ctg-highway-blockade-after-nearly-two-hours/

The students began the blockade at around 11:15am at the Kotbari Bishwaroad area in Cumilla and withdrew it at around 1pm, returning to their campus in A procession.

Comilla University students block the Dhaka–Chattogram Highway in protest against Apratim’s killing, demanding justice. Photo: TBS

Comilla University students withdrew their blockade of the Dhaka-Chattogram Highway after nearly two hours today (20 September), demanding the speedy trial and exemplary punishment of those responsible for the killing of Ishayat Shahriar Apratim.

The students began the blockade at around 11:15am at the Kotbari Bishwaroad area in Cumilla and withdrew it at around 1pm, returning to their campus in A procession.